

POHLMANN'S LOCAL.

CALVES.

We want all the suckling calves in the county from 4 to 12 weeks old and will pay in cash the highest market price.

POHLMANN BROS.
Fulton Meat Market.

HARVEST MEATS.

Pohlman Bros. make a specialty of supplying the harvest table with the best of fresh meats at greatly reduced rates. Farmers, when getting ready for threshing, bear this in mind.

Pohlman Bros. prices for harvest meats in quantity: Roasts, 6 to 8c. per pound.

Money for sale—loans at 6 to 7 per cent., according to amount and security. Campbell & VanCampen.

Wanted.

10,000 bags of clover seed. We will pay the highest market price.

SHOEMAKER BROS.

Another Convert.

O. B. Verity, of Fulton county, always an influential Republican, has come out for Cleveland, Thurman and Tariff Reform!

Farmers Did It.

The Democracy of Chester county, Pa., have nominated a woolen manufacturer for congress and he is a tariff reformer at that. He was nominated by farmers, a large number of whom are wool producers.

Wanted.

Responsible men having confidence in themselves, to fill good positions, local or traveling, with a leading Life Insurance Company. Address, Manager, Lock Box 66, Cleveland, O.

Until After Election

We will sell our Ladies, Misses and Children's Wraps on the installment plan. Select the wraps you want, pay part down and the balance in weekly payments; you will soon have a wrap and not miss the money.

$3,551.10!

The above figures represent the total receipts of the big fair this year. It is the largest amount ever taken in at a fair in this county. The expenses of the society are heavy, as it gave liberal premiums and the association spared neither time or money to make the fair pleasant for all.

A Card.

Owing to our immense sales during the past 30 days, we have been compelled to order goods almost every day to keep up our assortment. Consequently we are receiving new goods every day either by express or freight, and are offering them at a very small margin over first cost.

Gave Satisfaction.

The Lyons Comedy Co. completed its engagement at the Opera House on Saturday evening. Their stay in Napoleon was pleasant and profitable, and the company made many friends while here, for their good acting and gentlemanly and lady like conduct. They played to excellent houses, and are guaranteed a hearty welcome should they return.

Notice.

Owing to the limited time we had to prepare our display of cloaks and wraps, and being disappointed in not getting in all of our different styles until the noon express Tuesday, consequently we will continue our display during this week and on Saturday we will promise you the finest display of the above goods that was ever exhibited in Napoleon, to which we invite every Lady, Miss and Child to call and inspect goods and prices.

Pole Raising Postponed.

The pole raising which was advertised for Bostelman's Corners last Saturday afternoon was postponed until to-morrow (Friday) at 5 o'clock p. m., on account of the pole brought in not being just what was wanted. The boys are bound to have a fine pole, anything falling short of that would do. Judge Haag and C. F. Clement addressed the crowd present on Saturday. Good speakers will be present Friday in the evening.

On Hand.

We will have on hand at all times a good assortment of staple goods such as muslins, calicoes, shirtings, tickings, denims, ginghams, cotton flannels, jeans, red and white flannels, shirting flannels, blankets, yarns, black dress goods, dress flannels, &c., which we will sell at very nearly cost, all the profit we will ask on new goods is the freight, as we are positively going out of business.

Are You Intending to Build a Home?

If so, send us your address and 50 one-cent stamps or postal note for our new book containing over Fifty Different Styles and Plans of Houses, costing from $200 to $2500, suitable for city, town or country, arranged by the best architects in the United States and Europe. The book gives pictures and plans of each house, showing just how they look when completed. Any carpenter can build from these plans. If you ever intend to build a house, write at once, as this advertisement will not appear again in this paper.

Address, F. C. SHEPARD, Evansburg, Pa.

Just His Luck.

"Did her father actually thrust you off the stoop, Mr. Noodle?" said the lawyer. "Yes, sir. It broke my heart."

"Well, you have my sympathy. If you had broken your leg instead of your heart, you could have sued him. Some men never have any luck."

But when a man finds the most stylish, comfortable, and serviceable clothing for little money he has the good luck which attends all that wear the goods sold by Henry Meyer, of the Eagle Clothing Store. If you are in need of clothing or goods furnishing goods you should not fail to call upon Mr. Meyer, who offers you the best bargains in the county. His fall goods are now coming in and they speak for themselves.

Business Men's Meeting.

The Napoleon Business Men's Association will hold a meeting at the Probate Court Room on Friday Evening, Sept. 21st, at 7:30 o'clock, for the transaction of important business. Citizens generally are invited to attend.

Try Shoemaker Bros. school shoes; they are the best made.

Another Chosen.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Madge Heller to Mr. Henry Vorties, of Toledo, the happy event to take place at the residence of her parents in Napoleon on Wednesday evening of next week. May the richest blessings of marriage life be theirs.

Imitate Him!

Nicholas Rettig of Monroe township, raised a fine hickory pole on his farm. It stands 100 feet high and a streamer flies from its masthead with the names of Cleveland and Thurman upon it. Mr. R. is a red-hot Democrat, and therefore enthusiastic for the Democratic candidates and tariff reform. His interest is worthy of imitation.

Assigned.

On Monday William Stockman made an assignment of his grocery stock to Josiah Koller, for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Stockman has been sick for the past few weeks, unable to attend to his business, which fact no doubt was the immediate cause of his assignment. He has the sympathies of his fellow citizens in his financial difficulties, with a hope that he may regain health and resume his business.

Over 3,000 Entries!

The Wauseon papers are bragging over the number of entries made at their fair this year, placing the number at 1,495, and saying that it is the "largest list of entries ever entered at any county fair in Northwestern Ohio." Chestnuts! Never has the list of Henry county entries run as low as that figure, and this year the entries run over 3,000, more than double those of the Wauseon fair.

Of Interest to Pensioners.

The recent act of congress providing for an increase of pension on account of total or partial deafness, having been approved by the President, the Commissioner of Pensions gives notice to all those now pensioned for total or partial deafness that no formal application will be required to secure said increase. It will only be necessary that such pensioners write a letter to the commissioner giving name, certificate number and service, and such cases will be settled at the earliest practical moment.

After Him!

The business men and tax payers generally are after our Republican Mayor for issuing his proclamation on Wednesday for an election the coming Saturday upon so important a question as water works. They claim, and with good cause, that more time should have been given and that due notice of the election given in the public prints. The question is a serious one to the people of this corporation, and nothing saving of haste should be allowed to influence one way or the other. Deliberation and investigation is what is wanted.

Public Sale.

The undersigned will offer at public sale at his residence one mile north of McClure, on Saturday, September 23, 1888, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., the following property, to-wit: Three work horses, 2 colts, 5 milk cows, 2 full blooded short horns, 1 sow and pigs, 20 young cattle, 8 stock hogs, 1 wagon, 1 buggy, 1 cultivator, 1 Aome harrow, 20 head of sheep, 1 combined reaper and mower, corn in the shock, bod sleds, and other articles too numerous to mention.

E. J. HOCKMAN.

Magic Pass Word.

Halt, who goes there? A friend. Advance friend, and give the countersign. "Geo. Hahn." Correct. That is the magic pass word that opens the way to securing big bargains in all kinds of clothing and goods furnishing goods, such as all mankind are compelled to buy and wear. His fall stock is now arriving and what goods are left over from spring and summer are going at ruinous prices, in order to make room for the fall stock. Now is just the time to buy your clothing and Geo. Hahn is the man to give you good returns for your money. Don't fail to see him before buying elsewhere.

Go and See.

Many advertisers overrate their stock and price so much that many people put low estimates on every statement made in a newspaper. Now what we wish to say is this, that whenever you see any statement made in regard to stock or prices at Saur & Balesley's Drug and Book House, go and see for yourselves whether the statement is true or not, if not true we will pay you for your time and trouble. This house is celebrated for carrying one of the largest, finest and best stocks of goods in its line of any retail house in the state. Just now they are filling up with a fall stock of school books, miscellaneous books, blank books, albums, pocket books, paper, slates, pens, pencils, in fact everything in the line of furniture and school supplies. They are also closing out an elegant line of wall paper and ceiling decorations at prices so low that it is doubtful if they can even be duplicated again.

Theatre.

Davidson's Comedy Co. will occupy the boards of the Opera House this evening, when the successful musical comedy, in four acts, entitled "Hans, the German Detective," will be produced. Read what the press say of them:

"Mr. Davidson's singing brought forth encore after encore, until he had to come to the front and ask the audience to excuse him. The company gave the very best of satisfaction."—N. Y. Mirror.

"At the Opera House last evening that irrepressible and quaint comedian, Frank Davidson, kept a large audience in good humor for three straight hours. He is one of the rising German comedians of the day."—Pittsburg Leader.

"The Davidson Combination gave excellent satisfaction in 'The German Detective' last evening. Mr. Davidson's specialties received a number of merited encores. He will always be welcomed by the play lovers of this city."—Youngstown Telegram.

Bureaus!

Henry Holtzman has a fine stock of Bureaus at $5.00.

Big Day.

The Wrap Sale at Wilson's on Tuesday proved a big success. A band of music discoursed sweet strains up stairs while the buyers selected their goods. The Wilsons may well feel satisfied with their enterprise, which was as novel as it was a grand success.

Will Try Again.

We are pleased to note that the citizens of this place propose to make another effort for gas in this neighborhood. There is but $400 to be raised yet to dig the well. We hope to be able to announce in our next issue that this amount is taken. Subscription taken at this office. Come in and give us your mite.

Northwestern Normal and Collegiate Institute.

The fall term of the great school of the Northwest opens up with an attendance of 250 regularly enrolled students, of which number the larger part are students of the old Normal at Fayette, before the removal to Wauseon, Ohio. Students are arriving daily and are well pleased with the advantages afforded by the Northwestern Normal and the beautiful surroundings. The indications are good for 300 students this fall term.—Fulton Co. Tribune.

Death of Mrs. R. M. Badeau.

On Tuesday friends in Napoleon received the sad news of the death of Mrs. R. M. Badeau, of Toledo. She died at the family residence at 8 o'clock on Tuesday, after a long illness with Bright's disease and dropsy. Mrs. Badeau was for a number of years a resident of this city, where she has many friends. She was a devout Christian woman and bore her afflictions with resignation and true Christian fortitude. She leaves behind a husband and two daughters to mourn their loss. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

Fourth Semi-Annual Band Reunion.

The boys have posted the announcement for the Fourth Semi-Annual Band Reunion, which will be held in this city on Oct. 9th. It is expected that thirty bands will be present to take part in the reunion, and the air will be full of music. The citizens of Napoleon will give the visiting bands a royal reception and all will be done that can be to make their stay pleasant. Our country citizens should come in on that day, see the grand parade, hear the music, and take in the sights of the prettiest town in Ohio.

U. B. Appointments.

The following appointments were made by the Sandusky Conference of the U. B. church, which convened at Shelby, O., commencing September 13th, 1888:

BOWLING GREEN DISTRICT.
T. J. Harbaugh, Presiding Elder.
Napoleon—S. H. Tuning.
Beaver Creek—T. D. Ingle.
Portage—Levi Moore.
Dowling—W. W. McCurdy.
East Toledo—J. M. Crim.
Helena—C. L. Barlow.
Rising Sun—I. E. Barnes.
Elmore—J. P. Lea.
Lucern—M. B. Lanker.
Bowling Green—J. W. Hicks.
Custer—Y. G. Hofacoor.
Ten Mile—N. Snook.
Cygnet—Miss. to be supplied.

Troublesome Question.

The question that has long troubled butchers—viz., what causes the wool taste in mutton?—is again the subject of much discussion among the fraternity. The American Public Health Association recently stated that the touch of the woolly coat upon the dressed flesh imparted a wool taste, and that there was a very noticeable difference in the flavor of mutton taken from a sheep which has been for some time deprived of all excess in its woolly coat and that taken from a sheep which has a heavy fleece. The Hon. Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, who is a recognized authority in matters relating to sheep raising, contends that the association is wrong. He recommends the butchers to starve the sheep for twenty-four hours before killing, and then to cut the throat all around to the bone, allowing a free flow of blood. The sheep should then be dressed at once. The flesh will then be found perfectly sweet and without any perceptible wool taste.

Blooded Stock at the Fair.

Among the blooded stock at the fair this year none commanded more attention than the horses and colts shown by Mr. Chas. Lindau. Among the horses shown by Mr. Lindau we noticed the two-year old dark gray Percheron stallion "Davout," which was imported by Mr. Lindau, and the French Norman stallion "Momentum," which was imported from France in 1881. These two horses probably stand at the head of the blooded stock in this county, at least there are none better, and Mr. Lindau values them quite highly. With them was shown six of their suckling colts, which were the admiration of all lovers of fine stock. The horses and colts are banties, their total value being from $4,000 to $5,000. The red card was given them by the judges, and Mr. Lindau seemed as well pleased as was the boy with his first pants, and as frisky as the young colts themselves. He is doing much towards the improvement of stock in Henry county, and it would repay all to visit his stables on his farm, two miles south of Ridgville Corners, Henry county, Ohio. The blooded stock of this county has improved rapidly within the past ten years, until now we can show some of the finest horses, cattle, swine and sheep that are raised anywhere, to the credit of our stock raisers and farmers generally.

Death of Justus Stearns.

Departed this life at his home in Bowling Green, Justus Stearns in the 79th year of his age. He was born July 8th, 1810, died September 8, 1888, at the ripe old age of 78 years and 2 months. His disease, heart trouble, was lingering and painful but borne with remarkable patience and Christian resignation. When about 23 years of age the deceased moved to Wood county, locating in Montgomery township where he lived about 16 years. About the year 1849, with his family, he settled near Weston. Remaining in this township about 36 years, his last move was into Plain township, where he located in the business and enterprising city of Bowling Green. He became a member of the Church of Christ early in life, and for more than half a century he lived a true and faithful Christian life.—G. W. C. in Bowling Green Sentinel.

Council Proceedings.

REGULAR MEETING, Sept. 13, '88.—Members present: Donovan, Roessing, Norden, Holtermann, Decker, Pontious. Mayor Freese in the chair.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The following bills were presented and allowed:

S. Davis, labor.....$2 00
J. P. Belknap, printing..... 3 50

On motion of Mr. Decker, a committee of three was appointed by the Mayor to investigate the corporation map and see how many miles of pipe and number of hydrants necessary for water works. The committee consisted of Decker, Pontious and Norden.

The committee was also empowered to analyze the water at the gravel pit, and report the analysis to council.

The street commissioner was ordered to repair Perry and Washington streets.

Mr. Beard requested the council to locate electric lights, for the purpose of putting up poles.

Council adjourned.

Fall Clothing.

Cold weather will soon be upon us, and every man or boy will need more comfortable clothing. Bernstein, the One Price Clothier, has provided for this, by laying in a very heavy stock of overcoats, heavy suits, heavy winter pants underwear, fur caps, and every thing needed in this line. Especially in boys suits, children suits, heavy working suits, heavy pants, he has the largest assortment in town. His prices are lower than ever before. He never does any high falutin blowing or misrepresenting and he never advertises anything that he does not fully perform to the letter, when he says he has more clothing than any other two houses in town you can depend on it; you can convince yourself by simply looking in. His prices are lower than any one else in town, and he never has but one price. A child buys just as cheap as a man, don't miss your opportunity but buy your winter clothing of Bernstein, the One Price Clothier.

MARRIED.

BEAN—OWENHUGHAM.—In Quilicoe, Jefferson county, W. T., at the residence of John McCardle, J. P., Aug. 26th, Lem F. Bean and Miss Mary Cunningham, both formerly of Henry county, O.

BEILER—LOWRY.—At the residence of Joseph Weible, J. P., in Florida, Henry county, O., on Thursday evening, Sept. 13th, 1888, Mr. William Beiler and Miss Clara Lowry, all of Florida, Henry county, O.

In the middle of September, when the warm summer days are about over and the decaying leaves around us are falling, telling us of the approaching winter, these young friends at the marriage altar took each other hands to walk together through life, with no parade or show they came quietly with becoming modesty and seriously they assumed the solemn vows, and the mutual obligation that made them one till life shall end. May their future ever be as becoming as this hour,
